B A N G A L O R E .

Dear Sir,

I request you to kindly place before the Government the following representation of mine for favorable orders:

The Government in their proceedings No: 1339-43/ C.B. 51-21 dated the 2nd September 21 placed me on Special duty and ordered that I should immediately go to the Frontier of the Mysore District near the disturbed areas of Malabar. The order did not by itself give me the usual allowances admissible under article 55 of the Mysore Service Regulations for officers placed on Special-duty. During the Special duty period, I was put to great incon--veniance , having had to be constantly on the move and I had therefore to make special arrangements for my camp. I had all along to work in the thickest forest tracts of the Mysore District.

I therefore request you to kindly obtain orders of Govern--ment to sanction the usual allowances for the period during which I worked on Special duty.

I beg to remain,

Sir,

Your most obedient Servant,

M G Krishnasamy R

Sub Division Officer

French Rocks.
